CHAPTER VI

SCALES OF PAY

(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in Chapter III, IV, and V of the Statutes, the scales of pay to be prescribed by the Board shall follow the pattern given in the succeeding clauses of this chapter.

(2) The conditions and rules for grant of scales of pay, for admissibility of special pay and allowances (other than the allowances mentioned in Clause (5) below) to all the Deans/ Directors, Teachers, Librarian, Students’ Welfare Officer, Deputy Students’ Welfare Officer, Sports Officer and other teaching posts on the UGC pattern, shall be the same as prescribed by the University Grants Commission from time to time and approved by the Board of Management.

(3) The conditions and rules for grant of scales of pay, for admissibility of special pay etc. etc. and allowances (other than the allowances mentioned in Clause (5) below) to the Estate Officer, Medical Officer, Deputy Registrar, Deputy Comptroller, Assistant Registrar and other non-teaching employees of the University shall be the same as has been revised by the HP Govt. Rules 2009. Any future General Revision of pay by the State Govt, will also be applicable to these officers/employees.

(4) For such post in the University as do not exist under the Himachal Pradesh Government and which do not fall within the UGC pattern of scales, the pay scales and allowances (other than the allowances mentioned in clause (5) below), shall be such as the Board may determine having regard to the functions, duties, status and qualifications of such posts, in relation to other post in the University or other Universities in the region or posts in the Government.

(5) In granting the Hill Compensatory allowance, House rent Allowances and other local allowances (other than DA and ADA) Himachal Pradesh Government pattern shall be followed.

(6) The incumbents of various posts in the University shall be entitled to the pay scales, special pay and other allowances admissible to them on the date of commencement of these Statutes unless revised by the Board.

CHAPTER VII
STATUTES REGARDING THE CONDITIONS OF SERVICE OF OFFICERS, TEACHERS AND OTHER EMPLOYEES OF THE UNIVERSITY AND PREPARATION AND MAINTENANCE OF RECORDS OF THEIR SERVICE AND ACTIVITIES.

Definitions
7.1 In this Statutes unless the context otherwise requires:-

(i) A person on “probation” on a post is one appointed by ‘selection or promotion’ to the post for determining his fitness for his eventual substantive appointment to the post.

(ii) ‘Salary’ means the amount of the monthly pay and allowances granted by the University to an employee.

(iii) Foreign service’ mean service in which an employee receives his substantive pay with the sanction of the University from the source other than the funds of the University.

Age of entry / retirement
7.2 (i) A person whose age is less than 18 years may not ordinarily be appointed to any post in the University.

(ii) An employee of the University shall retire from service on the last day of the month in which he attains the age of 60 years provided that nothing in this clause shall apply to the Vice-Chancellor or to any person appointed for a specific period under a contract.

Number of posts
7.3 The number of different categories of posts in the University shall be such as may be determined from time to time by the Vice-Chancellor with the prior approval of the Board.

Advance Increment
7.4 At the time of appointment the competent authority may on the recommendations of the Selection Committee sanction a starting pay other than the minimum of the grade or subsequently give advance increment(s) for outstanding work.

Remuneration for extra work
7.5 An employee of the University may be permitted to accept remuneration for work done other than on the business of the University on such terms and conditions as may be approved by the Vice-Chancellor.

7.6 Medical certificate of fitness on first entry in the University service:

(i) All employee of the University shall, on first appointment to a post in the University, be examined for physical fitness (unless exempted by the competent authority or under the provisions of the Statute) by one of the Medical Officer of the University or the State Government. In order to continue in the University service, the employee must be declared medically fit by the Medical Officer. Before being examined by the Medical Officer, he shall be required to make a declaration in the prescribed form. The Medical Officer examining the employee shall furnish a certificate about the health of the employee in the prescribed form.

(ii) In case of doubt, the Vice-Chancellor may constitute a panel of doctors to examine an employee for medical fitness. This may be done either on the receipt of the report of the Medical Officer or on an application made by the concerned employee.

(iii) The standard of medical fitness shall be as prescribed.

(iv) An employee of the University not found medically fit by the Medical Officer or any other medical expert approved by the Vice-Chancellor for this purpose shall cease to be in the employment of the University. The employee concerned shall have a right to appeal to any Appellate Medical Board to be constituted by the Vice-Chancellor for this purpose. All costs in connection with the re-examination of the employee concerned shall be borne by the employee himself unless he is declared fit by the Appellate Medical Board.

(v) The following classes of employees shall be exempted from producing medical certificate of fitness:

(a) An employee appointed in a temporary vacancy for a period not exceeding six months.

(b) An employee on deputation with the University.
Probation

7.7  (i) Except, when otherwise provided in the Act or Statutes or in the special terms of an appointment on fixed tenure or contract or deputation which will be governed by the terms and conditions of that contract or deputation, all employees of the University shall, on appointment to any post, remain on probation for a period of two years.

(ii) The Head of the Office or Controlling Officer of an employee shall send to the competent authority at least two months before the date of expiry of the probation period a report about the work and conduct of the employee appointed on probation with definite recommendations about the fitness of his confirmation in the service.

(iii) If during his period of probation, the work and conduct of an employee is, in the opinion of appointing/competent authority not satisfactory, it may dispense with his service or revert him to his former post, if any or extend the period of probation and thereafter pass such orders as would have been passed by it on the expiry of the first period of probation provided that the total period of probation including extension, if any, shall not exceed three years. If it is decided to dispense with the service of employee it shall not be necessary to serve a notice on the employee for the termination of his service.

(iv) On satisfactory completion of the period of probation the competent authority may confirm an employee in the appointment provided that the employee appointed in a leave vacancy or in a tenure post shall not be considered for confirmation in the service.

Seniority

7.8  (i) The seniority inter se of the employee shall be determined by the date of their continuous appointment to the post:

Provided that in the case of an employee appointed directly, the seniority will be determined by the order of merit drawn up by the Selection Committee.

Provided further that in case of two or more employees appointed on the same date their seniority shall be determined as follows:

(a) In case of employee recruited by promotion/transfer seniority shall be determined according to seniority of such employees in the appointments from which they have been promoted/transferred.

(b) In case of employee recruited by transfer from different cadres their seniority shall be determined according to pay; preference being given to a member who was drawing higher rate of pay in his previous appointment and if the rates of pay drawn are also the same then by their length of service in those appointments; and if the length of such service is the same an older member shall be senior to a younger member.

(c) In case of employee recruited by promotion, his seniority shall be determined from the date of his initial promotion either on ad hoc / temporary/regular basis, made in accordance with the guidelines/principles followed by the H.P. Govt. from time to time in this behalf/regard.

Explanation :- service rendered by Government employee on foreign service with University shall count for seniority from the date of his joining the University provided such employee resigns Government job and is absorbed in the service of the University.

(ii) In the case of an employee whose period of probation is extended, the date of appointment for the purpose of seniority shall be deemed to have been deferred to the extent the period of probation is extended.

Ex-gratia and other facilities

7.9  Ex-gratia and other facilities to the family of the University employee who dies while in service shall be the same which are admissible to the employees of Himachal Pradesh Government as amended from time to time.

Royalties etc.

7.10 Royalties, patent rights for inventions and discoveries and honoraria for testing work in the University laboratories, etc.

Amended vide 29th Amendment and notified vide Notification No. 2-1/2001-CSKHPKV(GA) Vol.IX-15054-201 dated 24.02.2003
(i) The University shall have the sole right in respect of any invention or discovery or any process made in the University laboratories, farm or workshops and may move for securing the patent right for invention or process from the Government. The University will bear the cost of securing the patent right and receive all royalties, remuneration or income accruing from the sale or commercial exploitation of such a patent.

(ii) The University shall pay to the employees concerned such amount as may be determined by Board as reward provided that in cases where the expenditure incurred by the University on such invention or process is high, the entire, or part expenditure may be deducted by the University at its discretion from the amount of the reward fixed by the Board before it is paid to the employee.

(iii) In case the University decides not to apply for the patent right, the employee concerned may, if he so desires, apply for a patent right solely in his own name on payment of 10 per cent of royalty to the University.

(iv) Testing or research work on behalf of any organisation for which a fee is offered to the University may be accepted by the Vice-Chancellor in consultation with the Heads of the Departments concerned. The Vice-Chancellor shall determine and sanction honoraria to be paid to the employees concerned for such work taking into account all expenditure incurred and to be incurred by the University on the said research testing work.

Foreign Service

7.11 (i) The State, Central, Semi and Quasi-Government employees may be taken on deputation into the University. Service conditions of such employees/persons shall be the same as mutually agreed upon between the employees parent body and the University. The leave salary and pension and/or provident fund contribution of such employees shall be paid, if necessary by the University to the parent body.

(ii) The University employees may take up temporary appointment in a State or Central Government Department or in any other authorised agency and the said employee shall be considered as on deputation. The leave salary and pension and/or provident fund contribution of such employees shall be made either by the employee or the employer, as the case may be.

(iii) The period of deputation on foreign service within the country or abroad shall normally be three years at a time which can be extended up to five years. However, a period of at least five years should elapse before an employee is again allowed to proceed on deputation on foreign service. The total period of deputation shall be as per Himachal Pradesh Govt. rules.

• (iv) The Vice-Chancellor may send any employee/teacher of the University on deputation/foreign service.

(v) The employee at the time of transfer on foreign service/deputation should hold a substantive post in the University.

Declaration of age

7.12 An employee shall make a declaration of the age to the appointing authority at the time of entering into the service based on his Matriculation Certificate and in case of the Non-matriculate, such other documentary proof, namely the school leaving certificate or birth certificate. After the declaration of age and acceptance of the same by the authority, it shall be binding on him and no revision of such age shall be allowed to be made at a later date for any purpose whatsoever.

Increment and Efficiency Bar

7.13 (i) An increment shall ordinarily be drawn as a matter of course unless it is stopped by the competent authority as punishment. Where an efficiency bar has been prescribed in a time scale, the increment next above the efficiency bar shall not be given without the specific sanction of the competent authority.

(ii) The service rendered on temporary post shall count for increment provided that post is in the time scale of pay.

• (iii) The service rendered on adhoc basis on a post will count for annual increment in accordance with the procedure as is followed by the State Government.

(iv) The service during the period of demotion and the period spent on leave without pay, shall not count for an increment except when such leave is taken for higher studies or deputation/foreign service; provided that but for such leave, the deputation/foreign service, employee would have continued to hold the post.

Termination of Service

7.14 The appointing authority shall have the powers to terminate the services of an employee on any of the following grounds:

(i) Gross negligence in the discharge of his duty;
(ii) Misconduct;
(iii) Insubordination or any breach of discipline;
(iv) Physical or mental unfitness for the discharge of duty;
(v) Any act prejudicial to the University or its property;
(vi) Any act prejudicial to national security and integrity;
(vii) Guilty of activity which is anti-secular and tends to create communal disharmony;
(viii) Conviction by a Court of law for offences involving moral turpitude.

Resignation/Termination

7.15 (i) If a temporary employee wishes to resign from service, he shall give one month's notice in the University shall be entitled to recover one month salary, or salary for the period by which the notice falls short of one month, from him in lieu of such notice.

(ii) If the University decides to relieve an un-confirmed employee, one month's notice shall be given to him or in lieu of notice, he shall be paid one month's salary.

(iii) Permanent employee shall be required to give three months notice in case he desires to be relieved, or he shall pay to the University three month's salary in lieu of such a notice unless otherwise directed by the Board.

(iv) An employee, before leaving the University service, shall handover the charge of the post to the duly authorised employee and shall return to the University all books, apparatus, furniture, etc. issued to him for his personal or official use and shall pay in full all the charges due from him for occupation of residential quarter, any taxes, water and electricity charges, etc. If he fails to do so, the Head of the Institution or the office in which he was working, shall recover the amount due from him, on account of the above items, from his last salary or from the University Contribution to the Provident Fund.

(v) An employee who is in occupation of the residential accommodation of the University, shall be in the Status of licensee and shall leave the University accommodation allotted to him by the University.

Service Book

7.16 (1) (i) There shall be maintained a service book of every employee in which shall be entered all matters relating to his service in the University. The service book shall contain in particular history of service from the date of his appointment including increment, promotion, reward, punishment and all other special events of his service career. The service book shall also contain a leave account form showing a complete record of all types of leave undertaken as well as earned by him (except casual leave). All entries in the service book shall be attested under the dated signature of the Head of the Department/Office or person duly authorised by the competent authority. The service book shall be in the form as prescribed for the employees of the Himachal Pradesh Government.

(ii) The service book shall be maintained by and kept in the custody of the Head of the Institution/Office where the employee is posted.

(iii) Every employee shall be allowed to inspect the service book on request. He shall be required to put his signature in the appropriate column as and when there is any change in his pay as a proof of his having verified the entries. The Officer incharge of service books may permit the employee concerned to examine his service book should he so desire at any time.
The service book shall not be given to an employee who is proceeding on leave or quits the University service. A certified copy of the service book may, however, be supplied on request on retirement, discharge or resignation.

A personal Confidential File or Annual Character Roll shall be maintained for each employee in the manner to be prescribed. Adverse remarks recorded in the course of periodical or occasional assessment of an employee shall be duly communicated to him to give him an opportunity to make representation, if any, against such remarks.

The authority competent to grant leave shall be as per delegation of powers.

The leave account of every employee of the University shall be maintained.

Leave cannot be claimed as a matter of right when the exigency of service so requires, discretion to refuse or revoke leave of any description is reserved to the competent authority.

Leave salary, wherever payable, shall be paid monthly in the first week of the succeeding month.

Earned leave may be combined with sabbatical leave, study leave or leave on medical grounds wherever applicable.

Employee on leave shall not return to duty before the expiry of leave granted to him unless he is permitted to do so by the authority which grants him leave. If he is on the leave preparatory to retirement he cannot return to duty.

The leave sanctioning authority shall have the authority to change the date of commencement of leave granted to a University employee.

No employee may leave his headquarters during Sunday or holidays without the permission of the competent authority.

An employee on leave, shall not take up any service or accept any employment without the permission of the competent authority.

When an employee is recalled to duty before the expiry of his leave, he is entitled to no concession if the recall is optional. If it is compulsory, the period from the date on which he starts his journey to join his office may be treated as on duty but he shall draw only leave salary until he join his post. In addition he may be allowed travelling allowance as journey on tour.

When proceeding on or return from leave, the official concerned will submit a departure or arrival report, as the case may be, to the Head of office/institution concerned.

The authority in charge of the service book will make the necessary entry regarding grant of leave or return from leave in the relevant columns of the service book and leave account, under the signature of the officer authorised to sign entries in the service book.

Unless the authority competent to grant leave extends the leave, an employee who remains absent after the end of leave is entitled to no leave salary for the period of such absence and that period shall be debited against his leave account as though it were half pay leave, to the extent such leave is due, the period in excess of such leave due being treated as extraordinary leave.

Willful absence from duty after the expiry of leave renders an employee liable to disciplinary action.

In special circumstances, the Vice-Chancellor may grant hospital leave to any employee of the University while under medical treatment for illness or injury if such illness or injury is directly due to an accident or to risks incurred in the course of official duty.

Hospital leave may be granted on leave salary equal to either full pay or half pay as the competent authority granting the leave may decide. The period of hospital leave shall be limited to three months on average pay in any period of three years. Hospital leave on half pay will count for the purpose of this limit as half the amount of leave on full pay. This leave shall not be debited against the leave account of the employee and may be combined with any other kind of leave admissible.
Casual leave 7.18  (1) Every employee shall be eligible for 15 days of casual leave, in a calendar year.

(2) Casual leave cannot be combined with any other leave. It can be combined with holidays provided the total period including holidays does not exceed 10 days in one spell.

Compensatory leave 7.19 An employee excluding Officer, teacher and other supervisory staff who is required by the competent authority to work on holiday(s) / Sunday(s) before or after normal office working hours, shall be eligible for compensatory leave as allowed from time to time by the State Government to its employees.

Special casual leave 7.20 Special casual leave not counting against ordinary casual leave, may be allowed to an employee who is an office bearer of an Association / Union recognised by University for attending the meetings of the Association / Union. The total leave permissible for this purpose shall be the same as allowed from time to time by the H. P. State Government to the office bearers of the Union of its employees.

Regular and maternity leave 7.21 For the purpose of following kinds of leave, the leave rules in case of University employees shall be the same as adopted by the H.P. Government in case of their own employees from time to time unless specified otherwise:

(i) Earned leave
(ii) Half pay (including commuted and leave not due).
(iii) Extraordinary leave.
(iv) Maternity leave.

Other kind of leave 7.22 The teachers of the University shall also be eligible for study leave, sabbatical leave and duty leave in addition to other types of leave.

Study Leave 7.23 (1) No teacher shall be entitled to study leave as a matter of right and shall not be granted if the applicant has not completed five years of continuous service in the University.

(2) Study leave may be granted to a whole time teacher other than a Professor of the University to pursue a special line of study or research directly related to his work in the University. Application for such leave must be accompanied by a full plan of work to be done during leave.

(3) Study leave may be granted on the recommendations of the Head of Department/Dean of College/Director of Research/Director of Extension Education, as the case may be, by the Vice-Chancellor.

(4) The study leave shall not be granted to a teacher who is due to retire within a period of five years of the date on which he is expected to return to duty after the expiry of study leave.

(5) The study leave shall not be granted for more than two years, except in very exceptional cases in which the Vice-Chancellor is satisfied that such extension is unavoidable on academic grounds and is necessary in the interest of the University. The period of study leave, in no case, shall exceed three years except for M.Sc. degree where it will be restricted to 2 years.

(6) Study leave may be granted more than once provided that not less than 5 years have elapsed between the date on which a teacher had returned to duty on completion of earlier spell of study leave and date of commencement of subsequent spell of study leave. The teacher shall indicate the work done during the period of earlier leave and also give details of work to be done during the proposed spell of study leave.

(7) No teacher who has been granted study leave shall be permitted to alter substantially the course of study or programme of research without the permission of the Vice-Chancellor.

(8) A teacher availing of study leave exceeding one year shall be required to execute a bond to serve the University for a period equal to twice that of study leave from the date of resuming duty after the expiry of the study leave.
The teacher availing of study leave for less than one year shall be required to execute a bond to serve the University for a period of two years after the expiry of study leave.

In addition to executing a bond as aforesaid the teacher shall have to provide two sureties when study leave is granted to him on full pay and one surety when the leave is granted without pay and should give security of immovable property to the satisfaction of the University or a fidelity bond of any Insurance Company or a guarantee of a scheduled bank. The sureties furnished should be acceptable to the University. Where the two sureties or one surety, as the case may be provided by the teachers are/is those/those that who are/is permanent teacher(s) of the Institution to which he belongs, the University, in its discretion waive off additional requirements of getting security of immovable property or fidelity bond of Insurance Company or a grantee of a schedule bank. The surety clause shall form part of the study leave bond and the persons giving surety shall be liable to pay to the University the amount recoverable from the teacher concerned on the failure of the fulfillment of obligation of the bond.

Study leave granted to a teacher shall be deemed to be cancelled in case it is not availed of within six month of its sanction.

Study leave shall be granted on full pay. The necessary increment will also accrue as and when due. But during study leave the teacher shall draw leave salary equal to the pay (without allowances other than the dearness allowance) that he drew while on duty with the University immediately before proceeding on such leave. During study leave on full pay a teacher may be allowed to receive the amount of scholarship/fellowship or other financial assistance awarded to him by any agency other than the University in addition to pay and allowance on which study leave is granted and this benefit will only be admissible to those teachers who are pursuing their studies outside the University:

Provided however that if a teacher who is granted study leave is permitted to receive and retain any remuneration in respect of part time employment during the period of study leave he shall ordinarily not be granted any study leave salary but in case the amount of remuneration received in respect of part time employment is not considered adequate, Vice-Chancellor may determine the amount of study leave salary payable in each case. It shall be the duty of the teacher granted study leave to communicate immediately to the University the amount of financial assistance in any form received by him during the course of study leave from any persons or institution whatsoever:

Provided further that no teacher shall be eligible for more than one fellowship/scholarship at a time.

Subject to the maximum period of absence from duty on leave not exceeding five years, study leave may be combined with earned leave and half pay leave and extraordinary leave.

The period of study leave shall count as service for the purpose of retirement benefits provided that the teacher rejoins the University on expiry of study leave and serves the University for the period for which the bond has been executed.

The teacher shall submit to the Vice-Chancellor six monthly report of progress of the study through the Supervisor/Head of the Institution. The report should reach the Vice-Chancellor within one month of the expiry of six months of the study leave. If the report does not reach the Vice-Chancellor within the time specified, the payment of salary may be deferred till the receipt of such report.

A teacher:

(i) who fails to rejoin the service of University on the expiry of study leave; or
(ii) who rejoins the service of the University but leave the service without completing the prescribed period of service after joining the service; or
(iii) who within the said period is dismissed or removed from the University service; shall be liable to refund to the University the amount of leave salary and allowances and other expenses incurred on the teacher or paid to him or on his behalf in connection with the course of study:
Provided that if a teacher had served in the University for a period not less than half the period of service under the bond on return from study leave, he shall refund to the University half of the amount calculated as above. Provided further that in case no pay and allowances had been granted or pay and allowances had been granted on reduced rates as per provisions of Statute 12 recovery amount will be calculated on the pay drawn before the commencement of leave in addition to the recovery of other expenses incurred by the University in connection with course of study.

(17) If a teacher after refusal for extension of study leave does not resume duty on the expiry of the leave originally sanctioned, he will be deemed to have failed to rejoin the service on the expiry of his leave for the purpose of recovery of dues under these rules.

(18) Notwithstanding the above, the Board may order that nothing in these rules shall apply to a teacher who within three years of return to duty from study leave is permitted to retire from service on medical grounds. Provided further that the Board may, in any exceptional case, waive off or reduce, for reasons to be recorded, the amount refundable by a teacher under these rules.

• (19) Admission to Ph.D. study/courses shall be permitted to eligible teachers/ scientists within the University as well as outside in the other Universities/Institutions. For that study leave shall normally be admissible to eligible teachers for pursuing studies courses within the University for the period of completing the courses and comprehensive examination. For candidates doing Ph.D. outside the University they may be entitled for study leave for the full period.

• (20) A teacher who has been granted EOL for prosecuting higher studies shall be required to execute a bond to serve the University for a period of minimum two years from the date of resuming duty after the expiry of the Extra Ordinary Leave.

Sabbatical leave 7.24 (1) A permanent University teacher of the rank of Professor, Associate Professor or Assistant Professor desirous of undertaking advanced research work in his own field and who has served in the University as a teacher for not less than four years may be granted sabbatical leave for a period upto six months on full pay and for another period upto six months on half pay if:

(i) Programme to be undertaken during the leave is submitted along with application for grant of leave and approved by the Vice-Chancellor.

(ii) He is in a position to serve the University for at least three years after return from leave and executes a bond that after such leave he shall serve failing which he shall refund to the University the leave salary received by him and interest thereon at bank rate.

(2) The leave is to be utilized for advanced work in his own field, research or in pursuit of knowledge solely with the object of increasing professional efficiency and usefulness to the University. He shall, on return from leave, report to the University the nature of advanced work in his own field or research work undertaken during the leave.

(3) Sabbatical leave shall not be granted to a teacher before the expiry of six years from the date of last return from sabbatical leave or study leave.

(4) Ordinarily one teacher from a department with a total strength upto five shall be granted sabbatical leave at a time, and normal budget provision of that department shall not exceed on account of grant of leave; provided that no teacher shall be granted the sabbatical leave for more than two times during his entire service period.

(5) A teacher on sabbatical leave may be allowed to accept a Fellowship or Research scholarship or any other remunerative appointment in an institution of advanced study and amount so received will not affect the amount of leave salary drawn by him from the University.

• Added vide 59th Amendment and notified vide Notification No. QSD.2-I/2012-CSKHPKV (GA) Vol.XII/-61541-640 dated 7.11.2015.
Duty leave

7.25 (i) Duty leave on full pay upto 15 days in a year may be granted to a Dean/Director by the Vice-Chancellor for attending meeting of Selection Committee or for any Academic Work pertaining to organizations other than the University.

(ii) Duty leave on full pay upto 15 days in a year may be granted to a teacher/scientist by the concerned Dean/Director working under their control for attending meeting of Selection Committee or for any Academic Work pertaining to organizations other than the University.

General

7.26 No employee shall on account of any higher academic or other qualifications acquired by him in the course of his employment, claim as a matter of right any increase in pay or any extra remuneration or any promotion to higher grade or cadre unless the same is specifically sanctioned by the Board.

8. Misbehaviour, misconduct or “insolence”.
9. Gross partiality in assessment of students, deliberate over-marking, under-marking or attempts at victimisation on any grounds.
10. Inciting students, against other students, colleagues or administration; provided that this will not interfere with the rights of a teacher to express his differences on principles in seminars or other places where students are present.
(11) Raising question of caste, creed, religion, race or sex in his relationship with his colleagues and trying to use such practice for the improvement of his prospects.

8.3 Discipline, Inquiry, Punishment, Suspension and Appeal:

(1) The following penalties may, for a good and sufficient reasons and as hereinafter provided be imposed upon an employee:

(a) Minor penalties:
   (i) censure;
   (ii) withholding of promotion;
   (iii) withholding of increments of pay;
   (iv) recovery from pay of the whole or part of any pecuniary loss caused to the University by negligence or breach of orders.

(b) Major penalties:
   (i) reduction to a lower post or to a lower stage in time scale of pay;
   (ii) removal from University service which does not ordinarily disqualify for any other employment in the University;
   (iii) compulsory retirement;
   (iv) dismissal from University service which ordinarily disqualifies from further employment in the University and involves ordinarily loss of all accrued financial benefits.

(2) The following shall not amount to a penalty within the meaning of this Statute, namely:

(a) Stoppage of any employee at the efficiency bar in the time scale of pay on the ground of his unfitness to cross the bar.

(b) Non-promotion of an employee whether in a substantive or officiating capacity, after consideration of his case, to a service, grade or post for promotion to which he is eligible.

(c) Reversion of an employee officiating in a higher service, grade or post, on the ground that he is considered to be unsuitable for such higher service, grade or post on any administrative ground not connected with his conduct.

(d) Reversion of an employee appointed on probation to any other service, grade or post to his permanent service, grade or post during or at the end of the period of probation in accordance with the terms of his appointment or the Statutes and regulations governing such probation.

(e) Compulsory retirement of employee in accordance with the provisions relating to his superannuation of retirement.

(f) Termination of the service of:
   (i) a person appointed on probation during or at the end of period of probation, in accordance with the terms of appointment under rules governing the probationary service; or
   (ii) a temporary employee appointed, otherwise than under contract, on the expiration of the period of appointment or on the abolition of post or before the due time, in accordance with the terms of appointment; or
   (iii) a person, engaged under a contract in accordance with the terms of his contract.
The appointing authority shall be competent to impose any of the major penalties provided that no orders shall be passed imposing such penalty on University employee unless he has been given an adequate opportunity of making representation that he may desire to make, and such representation has been duly taken into consideration.

The competent authority may place an employee under suspension pending an enquiry if it is satisfied that there is a prima-facie case against him or in subordination, intemperance or other misconduct, or any breach or non performance of his duties or non-compliance with any of the provisions of the conduct rules applicable to him.

In case a University employee has been convicted for an offence involving moral turpitude and the orders of conviction has become final, the disciplinary authority may consider the circumstances of the case and make such orders thereon for departmental action as it deems fit.

Inquiry

8.4 (1) The grounds on which it is proposed to impose any of the major penalties on an employee, shall be communicated in writing to the concerned employee by the competent authority together with a statement of allegations and of any other circumstances which it proposes to take into consideration, in passing orders of the case.

(2) The employee shall be required within a reasonable time, ordinarily not exceeding two weeks, to state in writing:

(i) whether he admits the truth of all or any of the charges;

(ii) what explanation of defence, if any, he has to offer; and

(iii) whether he desires to be heard in person.

(3) If the competent authority is satisfied that a prima facie case against the defaulting employee is established, an inquiry shall be instituted by appointing an Inquiry Officer.

(4) The competent authority may appoint an employee of the University as the Presenting Officer to present on its behalf the case before the Inquiry Officer in support of statement of allegations.

(5) The employee shall appear in person before the Inquiry Officer on such day and at such time as the Inquiry Officer may by a notice in writing specify in this behalf. All notices from the Inquiry Officer shall, unless served in person, be deemed to have been served when sent by registered post to the employee at the last known address.

(6) The Inquiry Officer may entertain or reject for reasons to be recorded any request from the accused employee to be represented by a counsel at the inquiry.

(7) At the inquiry all evidence, oral or documentary, by which charges are proposed to be proved, shall be produced on behalf of the competent authority. The witnesses shall be examined by or on behalf of the Presenting Officer and may be cross-examined by or on behalf of the employee. The Presenting Officer shall be entitled to re-examine the witnesses on any points on which they have been cross-examined but not on any new matter without the permission of the Inquiry Officer.

(8) The Inquiry Officer may also put such questions to the witness, as he thinks fit.

(9) Before the close of the case on behalf of the competent authority the Inquiry Officer may, in his discretion allow the Presenting Officer to produce evidence not included in the list given to the employee or may itself call for new evidence or re-call or re-examine any witness and in such cases the employee shall be entitled to have, if he demands it, a copy of list of further evidence proposed to be produced and an adjournment for reasonable period not exceeding seven days before the production of such new evidence. The Inquiry Officer shall give to the employee an opportunity of inspecting such documents before they are taken on record.

(10) It shall not be necessary to frame any additional charges when it is proposed to take action in respect of any statement of allegations made by the person charged in the course of his defence.
(11) (a) These provisions shall not apply where a person has been removed or reduced in rank on the ground of conduct which had led to his conviction on criminal charge, or where an authority empowered to remove him or reduce him in the rank is satisfied that for reasons to be recorded by him in writing, it is not reasonably practicable to give him an opportunity of showing cause against the action proposed to be taken against him or where in the interest of the University, or the security of State or the Union of India, it is considered expedient not to give that person such an opportunity.

(b) If any question arises whether it is reasonably practicable to give any person an opportunity to defend himself under Statute 8.4 (11) (a), decision there of the competent authority shall be final.

(12) (a) When the statement of allegations against an employee shows that his general behavior has been such as to be unbecoming of his position, or that he has failed to reach or to maintain a reasonable standard of efficiency, he may be and should be charged accordingly and finding on such a charge may be valid ground for the infliction of any authorised punishment which may be considered suitable in the circumstances of the case.

(b) This procedure shall not apply in the case of a person appointed in temporary capacity or on probation. In his case one month's notice or pay in lieu thereof will be enough.

(13) Where any person has made a statement on oath, in evidence before any criminal or civil court, in any case in which the employee is charged as a party and had full opportunity to cross-examine such a person, and where it is intended to prove the same facts as deposed by such person, it shall not be necessary to call such persons to give oral evidence in proof of facts stated by him earlier. A certified copy of the statement previously made by him in any such case may be read as a part of evidence.

Provided that the officer conducting the inquiry may in the interest of justice, order the production of such witness in person either for further examination or for further cross-examination by the person charged.

(14) The employee charged shall not be allowed, except at the discretion of the Inquiry Officer to be exercised in the interest of justice, to call as a witness, in his defence, any person whose statement has already been recorded and whom he has had opportunity to cross-examine, or where previous statement has been admitted.

(15) When an employee who has not admitted in his written statement of evidence any of the charges or has not submitted any written statement of his defence, the Inquiry Officer shall ask him whether he is guilty or has any defence to make. If he pleads guilty to any of the charges, the Inquiry Officer shall record the plea, sign the record and obtain the signatures of the employee thereon.

(16) The Inquiry Officer shall, if the employee fails to appear within the specified time or refuses or omits to plead, require the Presenting Officer to produce the evidence by which he proposes to prove the charges and shall adjourn the case and afford to the employee another opportunity:

(a) to inspect the documents filed with the statement of the allegations; and

(b) to submit a list of witnesses to be examined and see a list of documents desired to be produced from the custody of the University indicating the relevance of the documents required by him.

(17) If the employee to whom a copy of the articles of charges has been delivered does not submit the written statement of defence on or before the date specified for the purpose or does not appear in person before the Inquiry Officer or otherwise fails or refuses to comply with the provisions of this rule, the Inquiry Officer shall hold inquiry ex-parte.

(18) The Inquiry Officer shall, on receipt of notice for the production of documents from the employee, forward the same to the authority in whose custody or possession the documents are kept with a requisition for the production of documents by such date as may be specified in such requisition.
Provided that Inquiry Officer may for reasons to be recorded by him in writing refuse to requisition such documents, as are in his opinion, not relevant to the case.

(19) On receipt of the requisition referred to above, the authority having the custody or possession of the requisitioned documents shall produce the same before the Inquiry Officer unless the Inquiry Officer is satisfied on representation by the authority having the custody or possession of the requisitioned documents that such documents are of confidential nature and should not be produced.

(20) When the case for the competent authority is closed, the employee shall be required to state his defence orally or in writing as he may prefer. If the defence is made orally, it shall be recorded and the employee shall be required to sign the record.

(21) The evidence on behalf of the employee shall then be produced. The employee may himself examine in his own behalf if he so prefers. The witnesses produced by the employee shall then be examined and shall be liable to cross-examination, re-examination by the Inquiry Officer according to the provisions applicable to the witnesses for the competent authority.

(22) The Inquiry Officer may, for reasons to be recorded, refuse to call any witness cited by the employee.

(23) The Inquiry Officer may, after the employee closes his case, and shall, if the employee has not examined himself, generally question him on the circumstances appearing against him in the evidence for the purpose of enabling the employee to explain any circumstances appearing in the evidence against him.

(24) The Inquiry Officer may, after the completion of the production of evidence, hear the Presenting Officer, if any appointed, and the employee or permit them to file written briefs of their respective cases, if they so desire.

(25) Whenever an Inquiry Officer after having heard and recorded the whole or any part of the evidence in an inquiry ceases to exercise jurisdiction therein, and is succeeded by another Inquiry Officer who has and who exercises such jurisdiction, the Inquiry Officer so succeeding may act on the evidence so recorded by his predecessor, or partly recorded by his predecessor and partly recorded by him. He will also have power to re-call, examine, cross-examine and re-examine any witnesses if in his opinion such examination is necessary in the interest of justice.

8.5 (1) Payment during suspension and on reinstatement

After the inquiry against the person has been completed and the disciplinary authority has arrived at a provisional finding and has proposed punishment, the University employee shall, if the penalty proposed is dismissal, removal, compulsory retirement or reduction in the rank, be supplied with a copy of the report of the Inquiry Officer and be called upon to show cause within a reasonable time which shall not be less than two weeks and not more than one month against the particular penalty proposed to be inflicted upon him. Reply to the show cause, if any, submitted by the accused employee shall be taken into consideration, before final orders are passed.

(2) A copy of the orders made by the punishing authority along with a copy of the report of the Inquiry Officer shall be sent to the employee by registered post.

(3) Where two or more employees are concerned in any case, the prescribed authority may direct disciplinary action against all of them in common proceedings.

8.6 The payments to the University employees during the period of suspension and on reinstatement will be regulated in the same manner as admissible to an employee under Himachal Pradesh Government from time to time.

8.7 (1) Appeal

An employee has the right to appeal against an order of punishment imposed on him to the officer next higher to the one that ordered the punishment.

(2) Notwithstanding anything else contained in these Statutes, and official, on whom a major penalty has been imposed by the Board of Management, may appeal to the Chancellor against such order within three months of the communication of the order to him.
Explanation: - For purpose of this Statutes, any of the major penalties listed in Statute 8.3 (1) (b) will be treated as a major penalty.

(3) He shall have the right of second appeal against the order of the first appellate authority to the next higher officer or authority provided that in case the first appeal lies with Chancellor or the Board of Management, there shall be no second appeal against the orders of the Board of Management on the first appeal.

(4) The order of the second appellate officer or authority or order of the Board of Management on the first appeal shall be final.

(5) Appeal should be disposed of within 90 days of the filling of the same.

(6) No appeal preferred under this part shall be entertained unless such appeal is preferred within a period of three months from the date on which a copy of the orders appealed against is delivered to the applicant:

Provided that the appellate authority may entertain the appeal after the expiry of the said period, if it is satisfied that the appellant had sufficient cause for not preferring the appeal in time.

(7) In case the Statutes are silent or are not explicit on any matters regarding conduct, inquiry, punishment and appeal the provisions contained in Central Civil Services (Conduct) Rules, 1964 and Central Civil Services (Classification, Control and Appeal) Rules, 1965, as amended from time to time, shall be followed.
CHAPTER –IX

Provident Fund-cum-Gratuity:

Definition

9.1 In these Chapters, unless the context otherwise requires:-

(a) 'Emoluments' means the pay and allowances including special pay, personal pay, dearness pay and dearness allowance but excluding house rent allowance and hill or local compensatory allowance.

(b) 'Employee' means a person in the whole time service of the University appointed on probation or otherwise to a permanent, temporary or a tenure post but does not include a person on deputation or contingent paid or engaged on daily wages or work charged or a person employed on adhoc basis unless preceded by a regular employment.

(c) 'Subscriber' means an employee admitted to the fund and on whose behalf a deposit is made under these Statutes.

(d) 'Continuous service' means uninterrupted service and includes all types of leave except leave without pay unless it is specially permitted by the Board to be counted as a part of continuous service.

(e) 'Family' means:

(i) In case of male subscriber, the wife, children whether married or unmarried and dependent parents of the subscriber, and the widow and children of the deceased son of subscriber; provided that if a subscriber proves that his wife has ceased under the personal law governing him or the customary law of the community to which the subscriber belongs and she is entitled to the maintenance allowance, she shall no longer be deemed to be part of the subscriber's family for the purpose of this scheme.

(ii) In case of female subscriber, the husband and children of the subscriber, the dependent parents of the subscriber or of the husband and the widow and children of the deceased son of the subscriber or of the husband; provided that if a subscriber by notice, in writing, to the Comptroller expressed her desire to exclude her husband from her family, the husband and his dependent parents shall no longer be deemed to be part of the family for the purpose of this scheme, unless the subscriber subsequently cancels in writing any such notice.

Explanation: - In either of the above two cases, if the children of the subscriber have been adopted by another person and if under the personal law of the adopter, adoption is legally recognised, such child shall be excluded from the subscriber's family.

(f) 'Fund' means the Contributory Provident Fund of Himachal Pradesh Krishi Vishvavidyalaya.

(g) 'Year' means the financial year

Membership

9.2 New entrants into regular service of the University on or after the date of notification of the pension rules shall as a condition to their service be eligible to the benefit of GPF-cum-Pension-cum-Gratuity Scheme.

Provided the existing employees as stood on the date of notification of the Pension Scheme shall have the right to either opt:

i) to continue to be governed by the CPF-Gratuity Scheme. OR

ii) to elect to be governed by GPF-Pension-Gratuity Scheme.
Provided further that the family of a deceased employee who was a beneficiary of CPF-cum-Gratuity scheme prior to the commencement of these Statutes and dies while in service may opt for GPF-cum-Pension-cum Gratuity benefits by surrendering the University contribution to the fund.

- Provided further that new employees appointed in the University on or after 15.05.2003 shall not be covered under the GPF-cum-Pension Scheme of the University and such employees shall be governed by the University Contributory Pension Scheme.

Subscriptions of University contribution

9.3 Every whole time employee of the University shall subscribe monthly to the fund when on duty or leave except leave without pay. The University contribution for the leave period shall be credited to an employee's account on the basis of emoluments due immediately before proceeding on leave. No University contribution shall be payable for the period of University employee remains on deputation or on foreign service. He may, however, at his option continue to subscribe to the fund. No University contribution will be paid for the period of leave without pay.

Treatment of period of suspension

9.4 An employee under suspension who is in receipt of subsistence allowance shall have the option to subscribe to the fund but University contribution shall not be payable during the period of suspension. In the event of re-instatement with full pay and allowances for the period spent under suspension, full subscription, if not already paid shall be recovered from the arrears of pay and allowances and University contribution shall also be made in lump sum.

Cessation of the Membership refused

9.5 Subscription to the fund shall stop from the date of retirement. This benefit will also not be admissible during refused leave as may be availed after the date of retirement.

9.6 (i) Subscription to the fund shall not be less than ten per cent of the emoluments of the subscriber. A subscriber may subscribe any amount exceeding the said minimum but the University contribution shall be limited to ten per cent of emolument.

(ii) Subscription may be reduced once at any time during the course of the year and/or may be enhanced twice during the year.

(iii) The subscription shall be deducted month by month from the salary of a subscriber and credited to his account in the fund.

(iv) A subscriber shall have an option to subscribe the whole or part of any arrears of pay and allowances, payable to him in cash.

(v) An account shall be maintained in the name of each subscriber in such a manner as may be prescribed in the regulations.

Payment of University contribution

9.7 (i) At the time of leaving the University service, the University contribution credited to the subscriber's account and interest thereon shall be paid to such subscriber as under:

(a) Nil, if the period of service rendered by the employee is two years or less;

(b) half of the amount of University contribution and interest thereon if the service put in exceeds 2 years but is less than 5 (five) years;

(c) full amount of the University contribution and interest thereon if the service put in is five years or more;

(d) Full amount, irrespective of length of service, on superannuation.

(ii) Unless the Board otherwise decides no employee of the University who has been guilty of dishonesty or gross mis-conduct and has been dismissed from service as a consequence thereof be entitled to receive any part of the sums at any time contributed by the University to the fund in his account or the accumulated interest or any profits thereon and that the University shall be entitled to recover from the amount in the account of an employee, sum equivalent to the amount of any loss or damage at any time, sustained by the University by reason of dishonesty or negligence of such employee, but not exceeding, in any case, the total amount of contribution credited to his account by the University and of any interest or increment which has accrued on this contribution.

Interest 9.8 The University shall pay interest on all sums deposited in the fund at a rate to be decided by the Vice-Chancellor in consultation with the Comptroller and the amount of such interest shall be credited to the subscriber's account half yearly.

Accounts 9.9 The Comptroller shall cause to maintain proper account relating to the fund showing the amount, for the time being, at the credit of each subscriber and the general state of fund. Each subscriber shall be supplied with an annual statement of account showing the opening balance, deposits, withdrawal and interest of the year and the closing balance at the credit of the subscriber.

Rounding in whole rupee 9.10 All subscriptions, contributions and interest credited to a subscriber's account shall be in whole rupee, interest of 50 paise or more being rounded to a rupee and less than 50 paise shall be ignored.

Investment of money 9.11 All money belonging to the fund shall be deposited in such a scheduled bank/post office as may be approved by the Vice-Chancellor. The amount shall be invested in long term deposits by the Comptroller from time to time to earn maximum interest, a small amount needed for advances and payments to the subscriber's may however, be kept in saving bank account. Forty per cent of the amount available for long term investment shall be deposited in Post Office Time Deposit Account on a month to month basis.

Transfer of surplus to Employee's Welfare Fund 9.12 Any surplus liabilities of fund to the subscriber's in exceptional cases, at any time, may be transferred to the Employee's Welfare Fund with the approval of the Vice-Chancellor.

Audit 9.13 The account of the fund shall be subject to the audit of the University audit authority.

Maturity 9.14 Subject to the provisions of Statute, the amount standing to the credit of a subscriber shall become payable on the death of the subscriber or on his quitting the service of the University.

Final payment to be allowed within prescribed time 9.15 Every employee on leaving the University service or on retirement shall claim payment of the amount standing to his credit in the Fund within one year of its becoming due. Interest shall not be payable from the date of expiry of one year of his leaving the University service, or retirement, unless the delay in final payment is not due to any fault on the part of the claimant.

Nomination 9.16 (i) A subscriber shall as soon as he may after joining the fund, send to the Comptroller's Office a nomination signed by him and attested by two witnesses stating the name or names of persons conferring the right to receive, the amount that may stand to his credit in the fund in the event of his death, before that amount has become payable or having become payable has not been paid; provided that if at the time of making the nomination, the subscriber has a family, the nomination shall not be in favour of any person or person other than the members of the family.

(ii) If the subscriber nominates more than one person he shall specify in the nomination the amount or share payable to each of the nominee in such manner as to cover the whole of the amount that may stand to his credit in the fund at any time.

(iii) Every nomination shall be made in the form as prescribed in the regulations for the purpose.

(iv) A subscriber may, at any time, cancel the nomination by sending a notice to the Comptroller; provided that subscriber alongwith such notice sends a fresh nomination made in accordance with the provisions of this Statute.

(v) A subscriber may provide in a nomination:
   (a) that in the event of any specified nominee predeceasing the subscriber, the right conferred upon that nominee shall pass to such other person or persons as may be specified in the nomination; provided that such other person(s) shall, if the subscriber has other members or members of his family, be such other member or members;

   (b) that the nomination shall become invalid in the event of the happening or the contingency specified therein:

   Provided that if at the time of making the nomination the subscriber has no family he shall provide in the nomination that it shall become invalid in the event of his subsequently acquiring a family:

Provided further that if at the time of making the nomination the subscriber has only one member of the family, he shall provide in the nomination that the right conferred upon the alternate nominee under (v) (a) shall become invalid in the event of his subsequently acquiring other members or members of his family.

(vi) Immediately on the death of a nominee in respect of whom no special provision has been made in the nomination under (v) (a) above or on the occurrence of any event by reason of which the nomination becomes invalid in pursuance of (v) (b) or the proviso thereto, the subscriber shall send to the Comptroller a notice in writing canceling the nomination together with a fresh nomination made in accordance with the provision of this Statute.

(vii) Every nomination made by a subscriber, shall, to the extent that it is valid, take effect on the date on which it is received by the Comptroller.

(viii) Except as provided in (i) to (vii) above, no assignment, charge or other encumbrance, affecting the dispose of the amount contributed in the fund whether by way of subscription, contribution or interest shall be recognised or given effect to by the Comptroller.

9.17 (i) The amount standing at the credit of any subscriber in the fund as his own subscription and interest thereon shall not, in any way, be capable of being assigned or changed and shall not be liable to attachment under any decree or order in Civil, Revenue or Criminal Court in respect of any debt or liability incurred by the subscriber or depositor, and neither the official assign nor any receiver appointed under the Provincial Insolvency Act, 1900 shall be entitled to have any claim on any such compulsory deposit.

(ii) Any amount standing to the credit of any subscriber or depositor in any such fund at the time of his demise and payable under the rules of the fund to any dependent of the subscriber or depositor or to such person as may be authorised by law to receive the payment on his behalf, shall subject to any deduction authorised by the said Statutes, vest in the nominee and shall be free from any debt or other liabilities incurred by the deceased or the nominee before the death of the subscriber or depositor.

Advances

9.18 (1) An advance from the fund may be permitted to the subscriber by the Vice-Chancellor, or any other authorised officer to whom the powers are delegated in this behalf subject to the condition that no advance shall be granted unless the sanctioning authority is satisfied that the applicant's pecuniary circumstances justify it and that it will be expended on the following objects and not otherwise:-

(i) to defray the cost of purchase of house, purchase of land for construction of house and for construction of house, provided that the subscriber has no residential house of his own.

(ii) to purchase a motor-car, motor cycle or a scooter.

(iii) to pay expenses in connection with prolonged illness of the applicant or any person actually dependent on him.

(iv) to pay for the overseas passage only of the reasons of health or education of the applicant or any person actually dependent on him.

(2) An advance from the fund may also be granted to a subscriber, subject to the usual conditions, to meet the cost of education of himself or any person actually dependent on him for the following types of cases:-

(i) for education outside India, whether for academic, technical, professional or vocational course;

(ii) for medical, engineering and other technical or specialized course in India beyond high school stage; provided that the course of study is of not less than three year's duration.

(3) Advance from the fund may also be granted to pay obligatory expenses on a scale appropriate to the applicant's status which by customary usage the applicant has to incur in connection with his own marriage or marriage, funerals or other ceremonies of persons actually dependent on him and to meet the cost of legal proceedings for vindicating his position in allegation made against him in respect of any act done or purported to have been done by him in the discharge of his official duty; provided that the advance shall not be admissible in respect of any matter unconnected with his official duty.

(4) An advance shall, in no case, exceed the amount of subscription and interest thereon standing to the credit of the subscriber and shall be limited to 12 months emoluments exclusively in case of clause I (i) (ii) above and six months emoluments in any other case.

Recovery of Advance 9.19 An advance shall be recovered from the salary of the subscriber in such number of equal installments as the sanctioning authority may direct, but such number shall not be less than 12 unless the subscriber so elects and not more than 24. A subscriber may, at his option, make repayment in a small number of installments than that prescribed. Each installment shall be a number of whole rupees, the amount of advance being raised or reduced, if necessary, to admit the fixation of such installments. However, in case of an advance equal to 12 months pay, recovery in 48 installments will be permissible.

Recovery during leave or suspension 9.20 Recovery shall not be made except without the subscriber's consent while he is on leave or is in receipt of subsistence grant and may be postponed by the sanctioning authority during the recovery of an advance granted to the subscriber.

Limit in advances 9.21 Normally only one advance will be admissible. But if, in special cases, more than one advance has been made to a subscriber each advance shall be treated separately for the purpose of recovery.

Withdrawals 9.22 Withdrawals from the fund may be permitted by the Vice-Chancellor or any other officer to whom the powers are delegated in this behalf for the following purposes:

(i) A subscriber after completion of 20 years service (including broken period, if any) or within 10 years before his retirement on superannuation, whichever is earlier, may be permitted a withdrawal equal to 12 months emoluments or one half of his own subscription and interest thereon, whichever is less to meet the expenses in connection with the marriage of subscriber's daughter or son or any other female close relative wholly dependent and residing with the subscriber.

(ii) A subscriber, after the completion of 10 years of service (including broken period, if any) or within 10 years before his retirement on superannuation whichever is earlier, may be permitted to withdraw an amount equal to 20 months emoluments of the subscription or his own contribution and interest thereon, whichever is less, for building or acquiring a suitable house for his residence or for purchasing a house site.

(iii) A subscriber with a basic pay of Rs. 4000 and Rs. 2000/- p.m., who has put in 10 years service or within 10 years of his retirement, which ever is earlier, may be permitted to withdraw for the purchase of Motor Car and Motorcycle/Scooter respectively or bicycle up to the limit of 70% of the cost of such conveyance or half the amount of the subscriber's own subscription and interest thereon, whichever is less, provided that the condition of basic pay will not be applicable in the case of withdrawal for purchase of bicycle.

Utilisation of advances 9.23 A subscriber who has been given an advance or permitted to withdraw money from the fund shall satisfy the Comptroller within a period of three months that the money has been utilised for the purpose for which it was drawn and if he fails to do so, the whole sum so drawn or so much of as has not been utilised for the purpose for which it was drawn shall be forthwith repaid in lump sum together with interests thereon by the subscriber to the fund and for default of such payment it shall be ordered by the sanctioning authority to be recovered from his emoluments either in lump sum or in such number of monthly installments as may be determined by the Comptroller/sanctioning authority.

Payment of insurance premium from the fund 9.24 Payment of premium for a policy of insurance may, at the option of subscriber, be made from the subscription to the fund, subject to the conditions which may be laid down in this behalf.

Disposal of dead accounts 9.25 When an account becomes dead, the balance at the credit thereof shall be credited to the Employees Welfare Fund of the University as prescribed in regulations as Miscellaneous Receipt.
9.26 An employee under the CPF-cum-Gratuity scheme shall be eligible to a death-cum retirement gratuity calculated in the manner prescribed by the Government from time to time in respect of its own employees governed by pension-cum-gratuity scheme provided that:

(i) No employee shall be entitled to gratuity unless he has completed at least 10 years qualifying service.

(ii) In the case of an employee who dies before completion of 10 years qualifying service or an employee who joins the University service at an age when he cannot complete 10 years service upto the date of superannuation, proviso (i) will not be applicable.

9.27 Rules for Pension-cum-Gratuity-cum-GPF in case of University employees covered under this scheme shall be the same as adopted by the Himachal Pradesh Government, in case of its own employees from time to time.

9.28 A Group Saving Linked Insurance Scheme of the Life Insurance Corporation shall be introduced for the benefit of the employees of the University. This scheme shall be compulsory for all the future employees of the University. However, the existing employees will be allowed to exercise their option.
