Objectives of Rural Development:

(a) To improve the living standards by providing food shelter clothing, employment and education.

(b) To Increase productivity in rural areas and reduce poverty.

(c) To involve people in planning and development through their participation in decision making and through centralization of society administration.

(d) To ensure distributive Justice and equalization of opportunities in the society.
Important Rural Development Programmes:

MGNREGA:

Stands for the Mahatma Gandhi National Rural employment Guarantee Act. It was the first ever law internationally, that guarantees wage employment. It guarantees of least one hundred days of wage employment in a year to every household whose adult member volunteers to do unskilled manual work. The Act also mandates 33 percent participation for women.
Pradhan Mantri Gram Sadak Yojana (PMGSY):

It was launched with aim of giving connectivity. It is a nationwide plan in India to provide good all-weather road connectivity to unconnected villages.
The National Social Assistance Programme (NSAP)

- The National Social Assistance Programme (NSAP) was launched in 1995-96.
- The NSAP then comprised of the National Old Age Pension Scheme (NOAPS) for senior citizens, National Family Benefit Scheme (NFBS) and National Maternity Benefit Scheme (NMBS):

  On 1st April, 2000 a new scheme known as ‘Annapurna Scheme’ was launched. This Scheme aimed at providing 10 kg of food grains per month to meet the requirement of those senior citizens who, though eligible had remained uncovered under the NOAPS.
And some other important programs are:
